

INSTRUCTIONS FOR IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICANTS

To assist in providing the most efficient customer service and to expedite your immigrant visa processing, the Consular Section of the U.S. Embassy in Ankara uses a pre-appointment document screening system.

To process an immigrant visa file and complete the immigrant visa interview on the same day, beneficiaries are required to courier their documents via United Parcel Service (UPS) to the American Embassy in Ankara.

The local UPS phone number is (312) 444 0033. The address of the American Embassy is 110 Ataturk Blvd. Kavaklidere, Ankara 06100 Turkey.

You may also choose to forward your documents to your relative in the U.S. who will courier them in to this office via International UPS.

Applicants will pay UPS for round-trip courier services. This service includes the cost of the return of the final appointment letter or returning the applicant's file in the event it is incomplete. The appointment will be scheduled for a few days after all documents are submitted.

There are no other alternatives for submitting an immigrant visa documentation. You should follow the instructions below and submit the required forms via UPS.

STEP 1 For Beneficiary: Complete Forms DS-230 Part I and II and obtain required documents listed.

STEP 2 For Petitioner: Complete the original notarized Form I-864, Affidavit of Support and its supplemental documents: W-2 and 1040 tax forms (for last three years), bank and other financial statements and forward it to your relative.

(if you are not qualified to sponsor your relative financially, you must find a co-sponsor who can present a Notarized Form I-864 and supplemental documents in addition to your Affidavit of Support. Also you must prepare a statement explaining why you did not pay any taxes to the U.S. Government for the last three years).

If you already submitted the completed Form I-864 and its supplemental documents to the National Visa Center, please disregard this step.

STEP 3 Contact your local UPS office and courier the documents listed in paragraph "REQUIRED DOCUMENTS"

No assurance can be given in advance that a visa will be issued. A consular officer can make a decision only after the formal application and all documents are reviewed, and that officer has personally interviewed the applicants.

IMPORTANT: Beneficiaries should not make any travel arrangements for departure, dispose of personal property or make other life changes until the visa has been issued. An immigrant visa is usually valid for a maximum of six months from the date of issuance. Applicants must travel and apply for admission to the United States within that 6-month period.

This office will make every effort to expedite the process. However should complications arise, applicants may be required to return to this office or furnish additional information.

Any child age 16 or older who is included on his or her parents' passport but whose photograph is not included in such passport, must obtain a separate passport.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICANTS CONCERNING VACCINATION REQUIREMENTS

United States Immigration Law requires immigrant visa applicants to obtain certain vaccinations (listed below) prior to the issuance of an immigrant visa. Instructions and procedural guides direct panel physicians who conduct immigrant visa medical examinations to verify that applicants have met the vaccination requirement, or that it is medically inappropriate for the visa applicant to receive one or more of the listed vaccinations:

Mumps, Measles, Rubella, Polio, Tetanus and Diphtheria Toxoids, Pertussis, Influenza Type B (H1B), Hepatitis B, Varicella, Pneumococcal, and Influenza.

In order to assist the panel physician, and to avoid delays in the processing of an immigrant visa, all immigrant visa applicants should have their vaccination records available for the panel physician's review at the time of the immigrant medical examination. Visa applicants should consult with their regular health care provider to obtain a copy of their immunization record, if one is available. If you do not have a vaccination record, the panel physician will work with you to determine which vaccinations you may need to meet the requirement. Certain waivers of the vaccination requirement are available upon the recommendation of the panel physician. Only a physician can determine which of the listed vaccinations are medically appropriate for you, given your age, medical history and current medical condition.

If you are fifteen (15) or older, a blood test for antibodies developed in response to infection by the Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) is required. HIV is the virus that causes the Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS). AIDS is the name given to a group of illnesses, which may occur in persons infected with HIV. HIV infection causes a defect in a person's natural immunity against disease. Victims are highly vulnerable to serious illnesses. This test is not to diagnose AIDS, but to detect antibodies to the virus. If the result is positive, it does not necessarily mean that you have AIDS or will get it. The results of your test will be provided to a consular officer. Also, it may be necessary to report results to the health authorities in this country. A positive test result will mean that you will not be eligible to receive a visa. A positive test result may also carry other consequences related to your day-to-day activities in this country.

POLICE CERTIFICATE

Police certificates are required for each visa applicant aged 16 years or older. Generally, application for such certificates should be made directly to police authorities in the district in which you resided. If an applicant over the age of 16 has lived in his/her country of nationality for 6 months or more, he/she must submit a police certificate from that locality. If the applicant lived in a different country for more than 12 months after the age of 16, he/she must also submit a police certificate from that country if police certificates are obtainable. If the applicant was arrested or convicted of a crime in a country, regardless of his/her age at the time the crime took place, or how long the applicant resided in that country, he/she must submit a police certificate from that country.

The police certificate must cover the entire period of the applicant's residence in that area, and state what the appropriate police authorities records show concerning each applicant, including all arrests, the reason for the arrest(s), and the disposition of each case in which there is a record.

Present and former residents of the United States should NOT obtain any police certificates covering their residence in the U.S. Turkish nationals should contact the closest "Cumhuriyet Savcılığı" (Public Prosecutors Office) to obtain Turkish police certificates.

Do not attempt to obtain police certificates covering residence in any of the following countries, as they are not available:

Afghanistan	Haiti	Sierra Leone
Azerbaijan	Iran	Somalia
Bangladesh	Iraq	Sri Lanka
Belarus	Kazakhstan	Sudan
Bulgaria	Libya	Saudi Arabia
Cambodia	Mexico	Tajikistan

Equatorial Guinea	Pakistan

AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT – FORM I-864

Overview

The I-864 Affidavit of Support is a contract between a sponsor and the applicant that is required for some immigrant visas. In this contract the sponsor agrees to provide financial support for the applicant until he/she becomes an American citizen or can be credited with 40 quarters of work (usually ten years). The sponsor must show that he/she has income equal to or greater than 125 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for his/her household size. The legal basis for the I-864 Affidavit of Support is Section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

Requirements for the Sponsor

A sponsor must be at least 18 years old and either an American citizen or a lawful permanent resident (LPR). The sponsor must also have a domicile (residence) in the United States.

Domicile

The law requires that sponsors be domiciled (live) in any of the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any territory or possession of the United States.

Please note that Federal law prohibits a joint sponsor from sponsoring an immigrant when the petitioner does not have a domicile in the United States. The petitioner must first meet all the requirements for sponsorship (age, domicile and citizenship) before a joint sponsor will be considered.

Domicile is a complex issue and must be determined on a case by case basis. To qualify as a sponsor, a petitioner who is residing abroad must have a principal residence in the U.S. and intend to maintain that residence for the foreseeable future. Lawful permanent resident (LPR) sponsors must show they are maintaining their LPR status.

Many U.S. citizens and lawful permanent residents reside outside the United States on a temporary basis, usually for work or family considerations. "Temporary" may cover an extended period of residence abroad. The sponsor living abroad must establish the following in order to be considered domiciled in the United States:

- He/she left the United States for a limited and not indefinite period of time,
- He/she intended to maintain a domicile in the United States, and
- He/she has evidence of continued ties to the United States.

An American citizen or LPR spouse or dependent who has maintained a residence in the U.S. and/or whose spouse/parent works in one of the categories listed below would also qualify as a sponsor.

Employment abroad that can be counted as U.S. domicile:

- Employment by the U.S. government;
- Employment by an American institution of research recognized by the Attorney General;
- Employment by an American firm or corporation engaged in whole or in part in the development of foreign trade and commerce with the United States, or a subsidiary of such a firm;
- Employment with a public international organization in which the United States participates by treaty or statute;
- Employment by a religious denomination/group having a genuine organization within the United States and is stationed abroad with that religious denomination;
- Employment as a missionary by a religious denomination/group or by an interdenominational mission organization within the United States and is stationed abroad with that religious denomination.

There may be other circumstances in which a sponsor can show that his or her presence abroad is of a temporary nature, and the sponsor has a domicile in the United States. The sponsor must satisfy the consular officer that he/she has not given up his/her domicile in the United States and established his/her domicile abroad.

How can a petitioner establish a domicile?

When a sponsor has clearly not maintained a domicile in the United States, he/she will need to re-establish a U.S. domicile in order to petition for immigration benefits on behalf of a family member. The sponsor may take a number of steps to demonstrate that the United States is his/her principal place of residence. Examples may include:

- Find a job in the United States;
- Locate a place to live in the United States;
- Register children in U.S. schools;
- Make arrangements to give up (relinquish) residence abroad;
- Other evidence of a U.S. residence;

If the sponsor establishes U.S. domicile, it is not necessary for him/her to return to the United States before the sponsored family members. However, the sponsored immigrant may not enter the United States before the sponsor returns to the United States to live.

COMPLETING THE FORM I-864

A U.S. consular officer abroad, an immigration officer from the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (BCIS) or a U.S. notary public can notarize signatures on the I-864 and I-864A. A consular officer will not accept I-864 affidavits of support that have been notarized by foreign notary publics.

What happens if the sponsor did not file income tax returns for the previous three years?

Immigration law requires the sponsor to submit income tax returns for the three years immediately before the visa application if the sponsor was required to file. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires Americans and lawful permanent residents who are working abroad to file income tax returns even if most or all of their overseas income is excluded from U.S. taxes.

If a sponsor was not required by law to file an income tax return, he/she should prepare a notarized statement. In this statement the sponsor should affirm that he/she was not required to file a tax return and give the related Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulation. The IRS 1040 Instruction Book has information on who is not required to file income tax returns.

Consular officers can only accept individual tax returns, since the individual is sponsoring the applicant, not the business. If the sponsor does not have copies of his/her tax returns, can he/she submit a summary of the returns from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Accompanying family members

Each accompanying family member must have either an original or photocopy of the I-864 Affidavit of Support (and I-864A if needed). Each photocopy must have an original, notarized signature. Copies may be used only for dependents whose names appear on the principal applicant's original petition. Copies of supporting documents are not required for accompanying family members applying for visas or adjustment of status together with the principal applicant.

Family members who travel later (follow-to-join) will require one complete set of the documents prepared in support of the principal applicant's I-864. Each individual applicant must present an I-864 Affidavit of Support with original, notarized signatures.

If family members have separate visa petitions, each family member must submit a signed and notarized I-864 from the petitioner/sponsor, the joint sponsor (if required) and I-864A as required. Each family member must also submit a complete set of supporting documents (such as tax returns, job letters and bank statements).
